

The Sweet Taste of Spring

March 22nd to April 9th, 2010

Enjoy the sights, sounds, smells and tastes of spring with your class in the sugar bush at the Tiffin Centre!

Join us for an interactive, one-hour tour of a working sugar bush that demonstrates the First Nations, pioneer and modern-day methods of maple syrup production.

Through hands-on activities, students will learn the basic ecology of the maple tree and how maple syrup is made.

Sugar Bush adventures are approximately one hour in duration and run Monday to Friday. Morning and afternoon tour times are available.

Cost per student: $5.00 based on a minimum of 20 students

\ Maple syrup and maple products will be available for purchase following the tour.*
